Re: Conway v. Healthfirst, 21-cv-6512-RA-SN

Dear Judge Netburn,

NYLAG represents plaintiff for the limited scope purpose of settlement. I write pursuant to Your Honor's Order, dated February 13, 2024 (ECF 80) directing plaintiff to advise the Court if Mr. Conway has accepted the revised settlement terms discussed at the settlement conference on January 30, 2024. Mr. Conway has declined to accept the settlement agreement and wishes to proceed with the litigation of this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Susanne Keane

In light of the Plaintiff's rejection of the revised settlement terms discussed at the settlement conference on January 30, 2024, the Defendant may file a motion to enforce the settlement or to dismiss, by April 19, 2024. Plaintiff shall file his opposition, if any, by May 20, 2024. Defendant shall file its reply, if any, by May 27, 2024.

As requested on January 18, 2024, the Defendant may file confidential portions with terms of the agreement under seal. The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to terminate the gavel at ECF No. 75.

SO ORDERED.

SARAH NETBURN
United States Magistrate Judge
